

*Dances of Universal Peace North Pacific Region
Autumn Community Dance Retreat*

Widening the Welcome

Dances of Universal Peace, Walking Meditations...

Dancing for an entire weekend in community brings out a depth of experience which enlarges with each dance.
Come add your voice and your presence to this exploration of opening the jewel of the heart.

November 5-7, 2010

Friday Supper (6pm) through Sunday lunch (1pm)

Camp Burton, Vashon Island, WA (Close to Seattle)

Our Beloved Staff:

MICHAEL SHEEHAN from Whidbey Island, WA - has been leading dances monthly on Whidbey Island, and at special events around the Pacific Northwest, for more than ten years. As Music Archivist for Oneness Project Michael has edited, mastered and produced various dance and zikr CDs.

SHEMMAHO from Castlegar, BC - has been an active Dance leader in the Kootenay region for 25 years. She started the Regional Dance Camp on Kootenay Lake, and directed it for 10 years. After open-heart surgery and a year of chemotherapy she is renewed in her mission to help all dancers bring more clarity and in-joy-ment to their dance circles.

CHELA PAM SLOPER from Bend, OR - walked into her first Dance meeting in Portland in the summer of 1991, and never left until she moved to Bend in 2007. During those delicious years she anchored on guitar, led Dances, was involved with the Core Team of the Portland circle, and served as Regional Networker with Elena Dejaridin. She also has been known to give birth to a dance or several.
